Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N. J.,
Operative - 312.

312/Bradley

December 5, 1922. In connection with the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Hudson Terminal and there boarded a train for New Brunswick, N.J.

Upon arrival at New Brunswick, N.J., Operative proceeded to the Court House. While at the Court House, Operative entered in conversation with a Mr. Thomas Bradley.

Mr. Bradley discussed the various cases at the Court House, and while doing so, advised Operative that the Schneider case had been put off until Thursday. Mr. Bradley informed Operative that there is one man in New Brunswick who could clear up the Hall-Mills case if they would let him. He said that this man's name is Dunn; that Dunn is a Detective Sargeant. For some unknown reason it seems, Chief O'Connell will not let Detective Sargeant Dunn do anything on the case. Mr. Bradley told Operative that Chief O'Connell has tied Dunn's hands for the past three years, and that Dunn is not permitted to do anything but sit around the City Hall. Mr. Bradley advised Operative that Detective Sargeant Dunn received $2,200 a year salary. It is Mr. Bradley's opinion that if Dunn was permitted to go to it, that there would be no Schneider case.

Mr. Bradley further advised Operative that the women of Somerset County were with Mrs. Hall, and were very much pleased to see the thing turn out as it did; they gave Mrs. Hall credit for coming to Somerville and facing it as she did - They claimed that Mrs. Hall was very brave.

Upon adjournment of Court at 4 p.m., Operative in the company of Mr. Bradley, left the Court House and proceeded through Spring Alley in the direction of Albany Street.

While going through Spring Alley, Mr. Bradley pointed out Mr. Florence and told Operative that Mr. Florence was a big lawyer.
